Senator Fall Says the Idea Federal Reinforcements Are Has Been to Destroy All Mexican Government.

WOULD OUST MADERO OR OTHER LEADERS

Overthrow of Diaz, the ousting of Madero, the confiscation of all property and the destruction of all forms of government was the policy of the Mexican Socialist junta which had headquarters in Los Angeles and St. Louis, but which operated in all Mexico, senator A. B. Fall says.

Fall says.

Senator Fall arrived Sunday from Los Angeles, where he has been making an investigation of Mexican affairs with senator William Alden Smith, chairman of the subcommittee of the senate for the investigation of Mexican affairs. He denied that any statement had been given out at Los Angeles regarding the report of the committee or its attitude toward intervention, and said that he had not been notified of any special session of congress to be called by presi-dent Taft to consider the state of the

"I expressed myself upon the plan of recognizing the belligerency of the Orozco revolution when I was here before. I do not care to say more regard-ing it at this time. Conditions change from time to time. Measures that would meet conditions at one time are not proper at another. I expect to continue to investigate matters along the border for some time. There are certain phases of the matter which I wish to investigate further. I understand senator Culberson is making an investigation at San Antonio, but I have no idea of meeting him at this time.

"While at Los Angeles, the committee also investigated the connection of the Socialists, Industrial Workers of the World, the Western Federation of Miners and other ocrganizations with the revolution in Mexico. The Socialists, the revolution in Mexico. The Socialists, headed by Flores Magon, Antonio Villareal and others, had a junta in Los Angeles and another in St. Louis. They received assistance from sympathizers in the United States. Arms were furnished to the forces under J. Rhys Pryce and others in Lower California in the revolution against Diaz. In July, 1906, this junta issued this junta issued a program and plat-form of the Mexican Liberal party. In giving evidence in Los Angeles in a neutrality case. this propaganda had been kept up and we obtained manifestos, etc., published and circulated even during the Madero revolution, stating that the junta was opposed to any government: that it would help Madero to oust Diaz, then help to oust Madero. It stated that they wanted no government at all. All lands were to be divided up, and also all property, including factories, mines and ranches. parted Saturday night from the city of Chihuahua by train, to reinforce the garrisons in the Casas Grandes district. Two hundred were left at Madera, to strengthen Gen. Blanco's command, most of which has gone overland to reinforce federals in the vicinity of the Hearst ranch, near lake Gusman. Again—perhaps momentarily—traffic is resumed on the Mexico North Western railway over its full length between the state capital and the border. The two bridges burned by rebeis last week between Pearson and Cumbre have been reconstructed, and a "shoo-fly" built around the big bridge burned just below Casas Grandes.

A passenger train departed Sunday night from Pearson to Madera, thus relieving the stranded passengers waiting to be transported south. The regulyar passenger schedule on the road will be resumed at once; that is unless more, bridges are burned. Federal troops are reported as pursuing the rebels away from the line of the railway.

A mixed passenger and freight train departed Monday morning from Juarez over the Mexican Central line. Daily service will begin as far south as Las Minas, about 140 kilometers below Juarez, to which point the road has been opened. The mixed trains will leave Juarez at 8 a. m., returning at 7 p. m. Below Las Minas, the road is in a bad condition and many more weeks will be required for repairs before it can be opened to the city of Chihuahua.

MEXICO TO TRY TO FLOAT A BIG LOAN

General Public Not Optimistic Over the Possibility of a Federal Triumph Over the Rebels-

Possibility of a Federal Triumph Over the Rebels.

Mexico City, Mexico, Sept. 20.—It is anticipated here that before the end of this week, congress will authorize the 20,000,000 pesos war loan requested by president Madero.

One prominent government official mays that he believes the end of the revolution is not far off and that a crushing blow will be dealt Orozco this week. The same degree of optimism, however, is not shared by the general public bers.

Official reports indicate less Zapatista activity in Morelos and Guerrero, but this is more than offset by their increased hostilities in the state of Mexico and by the appearance of a new revolutionary movement in the state of Veracruz where Gen. Aguilar is operating. In the states of Michocan and Durango, the governors report conditions improving, but press messages continue to tell of rebel raids on ranches and villages.

Gen. Blanquet has notified the war department that he does not regard the inauguration of an active campaign against the rebels under Orozco in Coahulla advisable until he is given reinforcements. He advised the immediate dispatch of troops through American territory to Ciudad Porfirio Diax.

hulls advisable until he is given reinforcements. He advised the immediate dispatch of troops through American territory to Cludad Porfirlo Diaz.

Taking advantage of the departure of Blanquet, who has with him some 2000 troops, the rebels have become much bolder in Durango and private telegrams tell of their occupation of Nazak, Rodeo and Guatimape. Many depredations, including the carrying off of a number of young women, have been reported.

For the first time during the revolution a train on the Laredo route of the Mexican National railroad, according to a delayed report from San Miguel de Allende, state of Guanajuato, was attacked by rebels. The northbound passenger train at dawn Saturday was subjected to a sharp fire between the stations of Jocqui and Empaime. Lights on the train were extinguished and the engineer, opening wide the throttle, left the rebels behind. No one on the train was hurt.

WOUNDED MAN PILED BENEATH MANY DEAD

All Victims of the Yaqui Indians in Sonora—Many Indians Join Rebei Cause in That Section.

Tucson, Ariz, Sept. 30.—A slightly wounded Mexican ranchman was rescued late Sunday near Moreno, Sonora, being pinned to the ground by a pile of dead men's bodies, according to advices received here last night. Yaqui indians, on the warpath in Sonora below the border at this point, had kidnaped 13 ranch hands in a raid on the Tapia ranch. The indians evidently had shot down 10 of the Mexicans, one by one. Below the pile of decomposing human bodies the living man was found by the rescue party. Besides the living man, the pile contained nine bodies. Three of the missing ranchmen are unlocated.

There are few federal soldiers at Ortiz, near where Yaquis are operating. Federal troops are pursuing the former command of Emilio Campa, held a United States prisoner here. A new hand of rebels is reported near Liano.

So far as the Republicans are concerned, it is believed the present chairman. J. Lorenzo Hubbell, and secretary Charles E. WANT BRYAN TO LEAD FIGHT ON TAMMANY Anti-Murphy Leaders Oppose Renomination of John A. Dix as Govercriver of New York.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 30.—William J. Bryan may be appealed to by the opponents of Charles W. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, to lead the fight against the renomination of governor John A. Dix, at the Democratic state convention which meets Tuesday.

Some of the anti-Murphy leaders who reached here last night held a conference at which this proposition was discussed. It was said that with Mr. Bryan on the ground, a general campaign would be started not only to defeat governor Dix for renomination, but to overthrow the leadership of Murphy in this state. The anti-Murphy leaders were not at all certain, however, that Mr. Bryan could be prevailed upon to take part in a state fight.

Those opposing Mr. Murphy were interested in the announcement made in New York by By United States senator O'Gorman that justice Victor J. Dowling of the supreme court would be placed in nomination by friends of governor Woodrow Wilson, who are understood to look with disfavor on the nomination of governor Dix. Drawing up the final protocol, even if the Turkish proposals are satisfac-tory, is likely to be somewhat delayed, as the Turkish government is anxious to have the elections over before con-cluding peace; otherwise, the Young Turks would have a trump card. It is not expected a peace treaty will be signed before October 15.
